

Country and context Form

The objectives of this form

- It is intended to help you become familiar with the local context in addition to providing general information about the country.
- It asks you to conduct research that will help you understand the country's particular reality (daily life of the inhabitants, sociology, administrative organisation, etc.). Researching and finding documentation is also a skill, a useful expertise.

Instructions and Practical Matters

- Select the most useful and relevant information for realising the mobility project (this is not mean just copying/pasting information found on the Internet).
